Week 2 – 13th November 2026

Message from Miss Hughes

It has been a busy week in school! Our Poppy Appeal sale raised a fantastic amount for the Royal British Legion. A huge thank you to our prefects for drumming up so much business.

Kim and I have enjoyed looking through the children's English books this week. There is so much to be proud of across the school: high-quality writing in a wonderful range of styles, beautifully presented work, lovely handwriting and ambitious vocabulary.

We also celebrated our half-termly afternoon tea this week with our Dojo Champions—the top two children from each class.

Today, the school is full of colour as we mark Children in Need with a pyjama day. It has been lovely to see everyone joining in and raising so much money for charity.

Finally, a reminder that we have lots of overdue library books. Please return any books your child has finished as soon as you can. Thank you!

Have a lovely weekend, Amy

Odd Sock Day Monday!

Monday is the launch of Anti-Bullying Week with the focus this year being 'Break the Silence'. Children will be discussing what bullying is, and different types of bullying and what can be done to stop it. Monday is Odd Sock Day, where we celebrate our differences! Children are welcome to join in by wearing some odd, silly socks that day!

Children In Need

Pyjama day was a real success today! This year, we have raised over £320 for Children In Need between the donations today and families buying Pudsey ears and pens and wristbands.

Special shout out to our Community Ambassadors and our Year 6 Prefects, especially Dawson and Amara who have been so committed to raising money! Thank you!
